What if my account’s base currency is not in USD?

If your account is in a base currency other than USD, your redeemable points will be converted to your account's base currency using the current exchange rate against the USD at the time of the transaction. This ensures that you receive the correct equivalent value in your chosen currency. For example, if your account is in EUR, the points you redeem will be converted to EUR based on the prevailing USD/EUR exchange rate. This process is seamless and automatic, allowing you to benefit from the Loyalty Program regardless of your account's base currency.
